

Finding Your Perfect Fit

You have invested a lot of time and money in your future. You want to make sure that the opportunity you choose is the right fit for you both professionally and personally. TeedCo. will help you find your perfect fit.

We are a unique firm specializing in advancing your personal medical career no matter where you are on your journey. We will work with you to match your individual career goals with the broad set of practice opportunities available to us through our vast network.

At TeedCo. you are not just a number. We thrive on the personal relationship and your happiness with the role.

When you entrust TeedCo. with your future you can expect...

- 1 – Free Services – All of our services are funded by the sponsoring hospitals and groups.
- 2- Confidentiality – Immediate, confidential access to all top career opportunities in every market
- 3 – Personal Attention – You will have a highly motivated personal consultant devoted to you and your targeted career search
- 4 – Industry Knowledge – Our consultants have a comprehensive understanding of what is going on in the industry including comprehensive trends, current procedures, hot markets and other aspects of today's healthcare climate that may impact your career
- 5 – Coaching – Comprehensive interview preparation including coordination of travel, scheduling of interviews, assistance with relocation and contract negotiation.

Identify, Interview & Succeed

Whether you are a resident, practicing physician, nurse practitioner or physician assistant, it is important to identify the right opportunity both personally and professionally, represent yourself in the best light possible during the interview process and to do everything you can to thrive and succeed in your career.

To find your perfect fit contact TeedCo. today!

Mark Ariano, Director ● TeedCo. Healthcare Recruiting ● Direct (203) 295-8310 ● Mobile (203) 451-1247
mariano@teedco.com ● www.teedco.com